This office acts as central administration agency for the 14 SAG plant groups, called Dach-Gesellschaften, which include a total of 99 various plants. Between 350 and 400 Russians are employed at this office plus about 140 Germans. About 40 of the Germans have jobs in the accounting office, and the other 100 are drivers, janitors, cleaning women, and cafeteria employees. The Askania-Haus also houses the head offices of the SAG plant groups Avtovelo and Zement. Avtovelo employs about 140 Germans and Zement about 20.

His deputy and head of supply is Krutko, 38-40 years of age, 1.90 m in height, slim, almost bald, and speaks very good German. Krutko first came to the Askania-Haus in the summer of 1950. Deputy to Krutko is Galanov, 47-48 years old, 1.70 m tall, medium build, thick black hair, black horn rimmed glasses, and speaks mediocre German. Galanov has been at the Askania-Haus since March 1951. Krutko's deputy for supply is Ageyev, about 35 years of age, 1.70 m tall, dark blond, and wears reading glasses. Ageyev came to the Berlin-Weissensee office in July 1951 when he replaced Dutin. Ageyev's assistant is Astaskov, residing Berlin-Weissensee, Lichtenbergerstr. 36, with his wife and two children. Astaskov is about 32-33 years of age, bald, slim, with deep-set eyes, and speaks mediocre German. He has been at the Berlin-Weissensee office for about two years.
